 Merimbula Realty

This stunning central 1 bedroom unit has been renovated throughout with high-end finishes and plenty of the WOW factor. Located only a short stroll to Merimbula township and in a very well maintained complex of only 4 units.

The first walk through the door will draw you in with the large spacious living area and open plan kitchen which looks simply stunning. The polished cement floors let off plenty of light and give a warmth feeling to the unit. North facing with great size balcony off the living room where you can enjoy the tranquil views and private setting.

The main bedroom is large and will easily accommodate a king bed and other furnishings. Built in robes, quality window fittings, light paint colour all enhance this very inviting room.

The main bathroom has been designed to its full potential using the space very cleverly.
